

THE MERCHANTS BANK

This building was first occupied in 1884. The Merchants Bank of Canada, recognizing the importance of Souris and surrounding district opened a branch in 1898. In later years it was operated as a Bank of Montreal. When the Bank in Souris amalgamated with the Credit Union in 2005, the building was used as a $0.99 Store. Today it houses the thriving business of Thread Count Fabrics.
